

Make sure that you have installed any manufacturers software drivers for your camera before proceeding.

Plug the camera into your computer and turn it on if that is a requirement.

Run the CameraViewer.exe from within this folder.

A window will open showing what you camera can see.